UNITED STATES CURRENCY

The Property of a New York Collector

As we predicted in our 32nd catalog, interest in our national currency has increased considerably during the past year. There is a strong and constant demand for choice and interesting material and the rarer varieties repeatedly sell at record prices. The estimates following each lot can be considered a true reflection of current market value.

DEMAND NOTES

The Demand Notes were authorized by Acts of Congress, July 17, 1861 and August 5, 1861 and are dated August 10, 1861. All were issued prior to April 1, 1862 and are payable at New York, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis and Cincinnati. They are the only notes without the seal of the United States Treasury. All are Very Rare and seldom found in nice condition.
